Following up her highly acclaimed Girl Meets God, author Lauren F. Winner has written an engrossing reflection of literary grace and spiritual wisdom with Still: Notes on a Mid-Faith Crisis. As she lives through a failed marriage and the loss of her mother, Winner finds her Christian faith slipping away. Through reading religious works and tomes and being counseled by leaders of the church, she learns she must find the courage to trust in God in order to find His presence. Elegantly written and profound, Still offers reflections on how murky and gray the spiritual life can be while, at the same time, shows us how to see the light we do encounter more clearly.

• An all-in-one volume sharing the history, practice, and viewpoints of Confirmation in the Episcopal Church and the first book on the subject for at least 15 years • Resolutions regarding Confirmation are coming to the 2015 General Convention • Includes questions for reflection and study by individuals and groups Many clergy and educators would say that the rite of confirmation in the Episcopal Church today is a sacrament in search of a meaning. Some believe confirmation is an essential rite of passage for adult leadership in the governance of the church. Some believe it is a rite that no longer has a place in the life of the church, understanding the importance that Baptism now holds in the 1979 Book of Common Prayer's ecclesiology. Following a history of how the rite of confirmation came about and its implications for youth and adults in the church today, voices in the Episcopal Church (bishops, liturgical scholars, confirmation leaders, and youth themselves) offer fresh viewpoints here in a conversational format to engage the reader.

With Still: Notes on a Mid-Faith Crisis, one of today's most exciting literary voices arrives at the crossroads of culture and spirituality. Lauren Winner, author of Girl Meets God, joins the ranks of writers like Anne Lamott and Barbara Brown Taylor, sharing a memoir that N. T. Wright calls "an unusually painful story, told with rare honesty by an unusually gifted writer." Dr. Rowan Williams, the Archbishop of Canterbury, says "it is a relief to find a book on the life of faith that is honest about the pain of emptiness and the fear of losing all that orients your life. Nothing glib here and nothing superhuman: just putting one foot in front of the other with whatever trust you can manage, because there is no other way to go."

A heartfelt book about love. Each poem represents a moment in Trisha's life as she falls in love with an amazing man. Trisha writes purely from the heart in this second book "Still Notes" with extraordinary emotion and deep soul connection. After a lifetime of heartbreak and life-changing moments in love, she is presented with a choice to leave everything behind and allow love into her heart just one more time. Lucky she did as it has produced some fantastic poetry & writing.

A sermon journal book to write in during church service so you won't miss anything the pastor preaches about, fill in blank spaces on the sermon journal, write the scriptures down so you can look up when you have a quiet time alone to reflect on the message. This will help you to grow in the word and bring you closer to God's way of living
